A fabulous way to play with language through popular sayings, witty poems and playful rhymes. Ingenious illustrations with vibrant colors and full of visual metaphors.

Our everyday proverbs are the main characters, they transform into poems full of humor, games of words, rhymes and double meaning.

Each poem is accompanied by an illustration in a merger that creates a book full of color that is perfect for reading out loud and sharing with family and friends. A book-shaped journey to remember that poetry is necessary, playing with words as well, and humour as an smart option.

A surprise full of vitality, drawings and verses to have always at hand, enjoy it often and live with joy!

Fran Nuño (Bilbao, 1973) lives in Seville and is a writer, cultural promoter and bookseller. He has been translated into a good number of languages, has several awards in Spain and the United States and more than forty books published.
